

This case history is of a vertical well, flowing ~ 200 bb/day water, 200 bbl/day oil, and 500 MCF/day gas on surface. RECON's HDPLT system is ideal in this situation due to our High Definition Holdup measurement being able to identify the gas phase starting to flow and breakout of the oil. In addition, water is identified in this flowing wellbore.

