

This case history is of a horizontal shale gas well producing ~ 4 MMSCFD & 200 bbl/day of water. RECON's accurate holdup measurements identified the water inflow sections and using temperature/flow meter and holdup, the analysis matched with high confidence the flow contributions.

