

This case history is of a horizontal gas well flowing at 7 MMSCFD and 1000 bbl/d. RECON's accurate holdup measurements show water flows from the toe section and the gas contributes evenly across the lateral. In conjunction with temperature/flow meter the analysis matched with high confidence the flow contributions.

